Bow Lake, Cathedral Peak and Mount Hector. A short distance from Laggan the track leaves the Valley of the Bow; here a fine view is obtained extending in a north-westerly direction to the Bow Lakes, while over-topping the great ranges, skirted by the railway, loom up the enormous buttresses of Cathedral Peak. The latter overlooks a land rich in beauties and full of marvels, where ice-bound crags and splendid glaciers shut in picturesque valleys and charming lakes.
